

The Upper Room – Week 3: Jesus Is the Way

Recap & Context

Jesus, on the night of His betrayal, comforts His disciples in the Upper Room. With betrayal and denial in the air, He begins with a word of peace: “Let not your hearts be troubled.” Jesus acknowledges the fear in the room and offers trust, not in circumstances—but in Himself.

Key Themes

- Jesus calms hearts before the storm (John 14:1)
- Betrayal vs. Denial: Judas is released; Peter is restored
- Jesus is preparing a place for His bride (John 14:2–3)
- The Jewish betrothal process reflects our covenant with Christ
- Jesus is the Way, the Truth, and the Life (John 14:6)
- Our assurance of salvation is rooted in Jesus alone

Scriptures Highlighted

- John 14:1–14 – “Let not your hearts be troubled... I am the way...”
- Luke 22:20 – “This cup is the new covenant in My blood...”
- Revelation 19, 21, 22 – The promise of Christ’s return and eternal home
- Hebrews 10:19–22 – Confidence through the new and living way
- Ephesians 2:13, 18 – Brought near by the blood of Christ

Application

- Trust the Author of your story, even when the page is painful
- Remember: we are engaged to Christ—He is preparing a place
- Jesus is not just the way out, He is the way through
- Let faith lead you into greater works for the glory of God